Into the Village Bonus Maps

This (free) map-pack features a number of simple outbuildings that can be used to complement both the Into the City and Into the Village range of building maps. What follows is a brief overview of what is contained in this product:

- A pdf booklet containing four small maps, along with space for the GM to add his/her own notes.
- An unlabelled jpg image of each map (scaled at 100 pixels per grid square), for use with virtual tabletops.
- In addition, each structure has also been provided as a miniatures scaled battlemat* (i.e. printable at 1" per grid square).

Please note that the battlemaps are not intended to be comparable to high-resolution dungeon tiles - but are rather a simple and effective way of transforming these outbuildings into serviceable battle-mats.*
